

---

28 September 2022

Chair, University Senate

Dr. Brian Roberts has been a full-time member of the UNI Department of History Faculty since Fall 2001. During that time, he has published two scholarly books and numerous articles and reviews, for which he was promoted to full professor in 2017. He also has chaired thirty-seven MA thesis committees and served as a reader on twelve more. Additionally, he has served on several Department committees and advised the History Club/Phi Alpha Theta since 2011.

He has served meritoriously and earned the award of emeritus status.

Robert L. Dise, Jr.

Associate Professor of History

Chair, College of Social and Behavioral Sciences Senate