- A. Group standing committees under Faculty Senate responsibility into related councils to foster improved cross-communication, stakeholder engagement, and adaptation, as needed.
- B. Committee Chairs to meet with key stakeholders at least once per semester to foster integration and to consider recommendations for change regarding charters, policies, practices, and personnel of constituent committees. See “Summary of Faculty Council Charters” for details regarding their purpose, responsibilities, and organization.
- C. First-year initiatives for councils will be to recommend (to Leadership Council) charters as well as a format and schedule for annual reports of constituent committees. [Leadership Council to provide baseline schedule and standard format, but confidentiality and scheduling of some committees’ activities (e.g. CARR, SAAB) will require accommodations.]
