

Committee on Committee Procedures/Bylaws

- 6.5 Selection of committee members. The Committee on Committees shall coordinate college elections for committees and shall hold elections for all at-large positions on committees. The Committee on Committees shall have the power to fill committee vacancies via appointment until such time as it is able to conduct an election to fill the position for the remainder of the term.
- 6.5.1 The Committee on Committees shall report the results of all elections to the Chair of the Senate no later than April 1.
- 6.5.2 The Committee on Committees shall issue an annual report to the Senate that describes the charge of each committee and updates the membership of the Senate and all committees. This report shall be presented to the Senate at its final regularly scheduled meeting of the spring semester. The Committee on Committees shall at this time recommend to the Senate the discharge of any standing or ad hoc committees (except for standing committees established by the Faculty Constitution) which in its judgment have become superfluous. The Secretary of the Senate shall append this report to these Bylaws.

Committee on Committees Report, Spring 2016

Submitted by J. Philip East

I tried to serve as co-chair of the Committee on Committees but was not very successful at sharing the work. The attached report of committee memberships for the academic year 2016-17 is still incomplete due to the times when some colleges held their elections, recent retirements, and election results that left some positions unfilled. I/we also failed to request new appointments from various non-faculty bodies, thus, some of those positions are likely incorrect. We will endeavor to fill/correct/verify those positions yet this spring and/or the beginning of the fall semester. Teacher education committee memberships are not included in the report at this time. A request for results indicated the information would be available in August.

Based on incidents occurring this year, it is recommended that the Faculty Senate consider several possible actions.

1. Revising the Faculty Constitution to allow the Committee on Committees or appropriate College Senate to appoint replacements for vacancies until the next regularly scheduled election is held.
2. Consider reducing the bodies on which specific Library representation is required or expected. The Library has 17 voting faculty (several are administrators) and nine positions to fill beyond Chair of their Faculty Senate. The service load on them is extraordinary. Additionally, their representation on University bodies is extremely out of proportion (triple the smallest college and nearly 16 times the largest college on some committees).
3. Consider revising submission date for the annual report from the Committee on Committees or suggesting/imposing earlier deadlines for/on the various colleges. Rather than move this earlier in the spring it might be advisable to have it be the first order of business in the fall. Elections could be held in the spring and notices sent to various non-faculty bodies that by August 1 they would need to appoint and report by September 1. This would allow the CoC to finalize the report document by the first Faculty Senate meeting in September.

Several committees appear on the UNI website but appear not to be active: Awards Competition Coordinating Committee (Senate), Committee on University Research (Senate), Academic Program Review (Provost), and UNI Museum Faculty Advisory Committee (Provost). Many committee memberships seem out of date.

It is my intention to produce two documents and deliver them to the next Committee on Committees. One document will detail the elections that need to be held next year. The other document will identify a time-line of activities for the committee to consider, update, and pass along.

2015-2016 UNIVERSITY COMMITTEE MEMBERSHIPS

Compiled by the University Committee on Committees

Phil East & Chris Neuhaus, Co-Chairs

The following abbreviations for units and colleges are used: College of Education, COE; College of Humanities Arts and Sciences CHAS; College of Social and Behavioral Sciences, CSBS; College of Business Administration, CBA; Graduate College, GRAD; Library, L; Non-Voting Faculty, NV.

Committees vary with respect to term lengths and limits. Each leadership position or committee title has a term length indicated, e.g, (1 yr), (3 yr). Asterisks on each term length notation should be interpreted as follows:

- No asterisk indicates that there are no limits on consecutive terms
- One asterisk * indicates that elected members are limited to two consecutive terms
- Three asterisks  indicates that elected members are limited to three consecutive terms

The date after each name indicates expiration of the term. The number in parentheses indicates the term now being served—0 is used for those completing vacated positions; partial terms are not included in term limits.

Faculty Chairs

Chairperson of the University Faculty (1 yr*): Timothy Kidd, 17 (1)

The University faculty shall elect its chairperson by majority vote of those voting. The Committee on Committees shall make at least two nominations; other names may be added to the ballot by petition of at least thirty faculty members delivered to the secretary of the faculty. The chairperson shall serve a term of one year, beginning in the fall semester; a person may serve no more than two consecutive terms.

from Article II of the Constitution of the Faculty of the University of Northern Iowa
<https://www.uni.edu/senate/constitution-faculty>

Chairperson of the Graduate Faculty (1 yr*): Gayle Pohl 17 (1)

The chairperson of the Graduate Faculty will be elected by a vote of the membership in the spring of each year for a one-year term and may serve for no more than two years consecutively. The chairperson of the Graduate Faculty shall convene regular and special meetings of the Graduate Faculty and preside over them. The chairperson of the Graduate Faculty shall prepare, with the assistance of the chairperson of the Graduate Council and the Graduate Dean, agenda for meetings and provide for the distribution of the agenda to the Graduate Faculty prior to the meeting. The chairperson of the Graduate Faculty will act as a spokesperson for the Graduate Faculty and as an ex-officio member of the Graduate Council.

Article V 3.1 University Faculty Senate Membership.

The University Faculty Senate shall be composed of members elected by and from the voting faculty from each undergraduate college (including academic units which function as a college although otherwise designated), elected by and from the Library Faculty, and elected by and from the non-voting faculty. The number of senators to be elected by the members of each undergraduate college and the Library will be determined by the following formula: one senator per thirty voting faculty members rounded to the nearest multiple of thirty, with a minimum of at least one senator from each college. Two non-voting senators, elected from the non-voting faculty shall have full rights of debate and motion but no Senate vote. The chairperson of the faculty shall be an ex officio member of the University Faculty Senate with full rights of debate and motion but will not vote.

PANEL ON FACULTY CONDUCT

It is the responsibility of all members of the faculty to uphold norms of professional ethics and to protect academic freedom. The Panel on Faculty Conduct shall consist of all tenured, fully promoted faculty members.

When notified of the necessity for a hearing committee, the Senate Chair shall randomly select 25 names from the Panel to fulfill his/her obligation under the 1973 Board of Regents Procedure for Handling Faculty Dismissal Cases. The Provost’s selections may also come from this panel.

Under the 1973 Board of Regents Procedure for Handling Faculty Dismissal Cases, required by Appendix B of the Master Agreement, “No member should be chosen from the Senate or from the preliminary committee of three. Except in unusual circumstances, no member of the accused’s department should serve on this committee.”

FACULTY WELFARE COMMITTEE

Membership: the Faculty Welfare Committee shall consist of the Chair of the Faculty, the chair (or designee) and a designee from the Faculty Senate and the chair or designee from the other college senates. All members of the Faculty Welfare Committee shall be tenured.

Charge: Under the 1973 Board of Regents Procedure for Handling Faculty Dismissal Cases, required by appendix B of the Master Agreement, the Faculty Welfare Committee shall, upon request from the provost, “appoint a committee of three, at least one of whom is a member of the Faculty Welfare Committee, to inquire quickly and informally into the [accusation against a faculty member] and ... decide whether in their opinion formal proceedings are justified.”

Those appointed to the inquiry committee must have the rank of full professor with tenure. No one shall be appointed to the inquiry committee who is a member of the University Faculty Senate or who is from the accused’s department. Members of the Faculty Welfare Committee from the accused’s department or who have other conflicts of interest in the case must recuse themselves from participating in discussion of the case.

PROGRAM SUSTAINABILITY COMMITTEE (3yr*)

The Program Sustainability Committee is responsible for developing and monitoring a set of measurable metrics to monitor the health of programs (majors and departments) at the university. The goal is to examine trends and give early warning to areas which show problems, and also identify programs in need of more resources. The committee will report to the faculty senate on an annual basis and also notify departments and faculty in those departments if the metrics indicate any troubles or need for more resources. When selected for the committee, members need to be a member of the body listed below, but can remain on the committee if their term expires in the source committee before their term expires in the Program Sustainability Committee. Terms of service are for three years.

Composition

The elected membership of the Graduate Council consists of Regular Graduate Faculty members from each academic college, a representative from the Rod Library Graduate Faculty, and two graduate students with one representing the master's programs and one representing the doctoral programs. The number of Graduate Council members from each academic college is based on the number of graduate faculty in each college; colleges with less than 200 Regular Graduate Faculty members will have two representatives, colleges with 200 – 299 Regular Graduate Faculty members will have four representatives, and colleges with 300 or more Regular Graduate Faculty members will have six representatives. These faculty members shall be elected by the eligible voting members of the Graduate Faculty from their respective units. The graduate student members are elected from the graduate student advisory committee to the Graduate Dean. The Chairperson of the Graduate Faculty is an ex-officio, voting member of the Graduate Council. The following are ex-officio, non-voting members of the Graduate Council: The Graduate Dean and other officers of the Graduate College (Associate or Assistant Deans, and Assistants to the Dean). Exclusive of ex-officio members, no more than one faculty member of the Graduate Council shall be from the same department or school.

Election and Term of Office

Elected members of the Graduate Council serve for a term of two years, with no member allowed to serve more than three consecutive terms. Elections are staggered so that one member of each academic college is elected in the spring of each academic year. The graduate student representing the doctoral programs serves for two years and the graduate student representing the master's programs serves for one year with no graduate student allowed to serve for more than three consecutive terms. Terms begin and end with the beginning of the Fall Semester. Each academic college conducts its own election and reports the results to the Graduate Dean.

Voting Faculty – Non-Voting Faculty

(Article I: Definition of the Faculty)

1. The University Faculty. The University faculty shall consist of two groups: the voting faculty and the non-voting faculty.
 - 1.1 The Voting Faculty. The voting faculty shall consist of all those who are appointed to one of the four academic ranks--instructor, assistant professor, associate professor, or full professor--and who hold a probationary or tenured appointment.
 - 1.2 The Non-Voting Faculty. The non-voting faculty shall consist of those who hold part-time or full-time temporary appointments--lecturers, adjuncts, visiting professors, other such designations--that involve teaching and/or research responsibilities directly related to the academic programs of the University. It shall include emeritus faculty and, in addition, all those persons whose original appointments both carry faculty status and pre-date the adoption of this Constitution.
 - 1.3 Jurisdiction of the Voting Faculty: Limitation of Voting. Privilege of motion, second, and debate shall be afforded to all members of the faculty during faculty meetings. Voting shall be restricted to members of the voting faculty.
 - 1.4 The Faculty Senate may, as it deems appropriate, admit individuals to the voting faculty or to the nonvoting faculty on a permanent or ad hoc basis. Individuals who believe that their university responsibilities justify their being members of the voting or of the non-voting faculty may apply, in writing, to the Faculty Senate for consideration. Voting faculty or non-voting faculty status granted by the Faculty Senate shall be for such term as the Faculty Senate specifies, but in all cases will be retained by the individual only as long as he/she remains in his/her position.
2. The Word "Faculty" in this Constitution. When the word "faculty" is used in this Constitution without a modifying adjective preceding it, reference to the University faculty shall be assumed.
3. The definitions of the University in this Constitution apply to the conduct of the official business of the University faculty and do not prohibit the granting of privileges normally associated with faculty status, such as social privileges, to other members of the University administration and staff.
4. Official Roster of the Faculty. As soon as practical in the fall semester but no later than October 1 and in the spring semester no later than February 1, the chairperson of the faculty shall arrange for the availability of an official roster of the faculty. The chairperson of the faculty shall have the authority to decide boundary cases of faculty status according to the spirit of the foregoing sections, subject to challenge and review as provided below. The fall roster shall include a listing of those persons who are qualified for membership in voting faculty and those qualified for membership in the non-voting faculty. The spring roster shall consist of a list of additions to the fall roster. Qualification for faculty status for the entire academic year shall be established by a person's assignment during either the fall or the spring semester of that year. Faculty status established during an academic year shall be construed to apply also to the following summer session, unless the person does not continue his/her appointment with the University.
 - 4.1 Distribution. A sufficient number of copies of the roster for the fall and spring shall be prepared to supply each of the following committees, persons, and offices: the Committee on Committees; the chairperson of the faculty; the vice-chairperson of the faculty ; the secretary of the faculty; the Office of Academic Affairs; all college offices; all departmental offices. Each college office and each departmental office shall, for a period of one week after the roster's issuance, prominently display the roster in a place readily accessible to the faculty. In addition, a copy of the current semester's roster shall be made available to any faculty member upon written request to the secretary of the faculty.
 - 4.2 Challenges of the Roster. Challenges of the accuracy or the propriety of the listings in any semester's roster shall be directed to the University Faculty Senate within 15 class days after distribution for adjudication by majority vote.
 - 4.3 Appeal and Final Disposition of Challenge. The Senate's decision (see section 4.2. above) may be appealed to a majority vote of the University faculty whose decision shall be final.
